

Emma Taylor

INDEPENDENT OCCUPATIONAL THERAPIST

“Understanding the obstacles to what the client wants, or needs to do, is fundamental to developing the most appropriate solutions for them to achieve their goals”

CONTACT

emma@taylorergonomics.com
07901 987616

CAREER SUMMARY

INDEPENDENT OCCUPATIONAL
THERAPIST 2011 –

SENIOR LECTURER/ASSOCIATE LECTURER
Sheffield Hallam University 2004 -

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPIST
Rotherham 1994 - 2004

QUALIFICATIONS

- MSc Health Ergonomics (2010)
- BSc (Hons) Occupational Therapy (1994)
- PG Cert Learning and Teaching (2005)
- PG Cert Managing in Health and Social Care (1998)

MEMBERSHIPS

HCPC OT.23544
RCOT BT0207904

Clinical areas of expertise

Polytrauma
Amputee
Spinal injury
Adults with cerebral palsy
Brain injury

Specialist areas of practice

Client focused approach
Home adaptations incl. environmental controls
Functional rehabilitation
Vocational rehabilitation
Workplace assessments
Wheelchair and seating assessments
Accessible holiday planning
Car and wheelchair accessible vehicle assessments
Manual handling assessments
Manual handling training
Fatigue management and education
Pain management and education